At BCG, we've got the spirit of the bulldog running through our DNA. When you call us, you're talking to one of the owners, and we have the experience, the expertise and – yes – dogged determination to make anything happen!

There are no reps or associates at BCG – unless you count Walter, Marvin or Gladys, our three spirited bulldogs, who are by our side each and every day. We will approach your next custom project with a tenacity unparalleled in the industry, driven by our spirit to exceed your every expectation. After all, we've been doing it for 40 years... it's our pedigree.

Lapel Pins

Close to their hearts

Get close to their heart, with your completely customizable brand lapel pin. A lapel pin goes on and stays on, making a brand ambassador of the wearer. It's a statement by them about you, a declaration of love. It's why lapel pins have been a best-seller for us since 1981. All this for $2 or less – how's that for heartening?

Wood Products

Leave a legacy

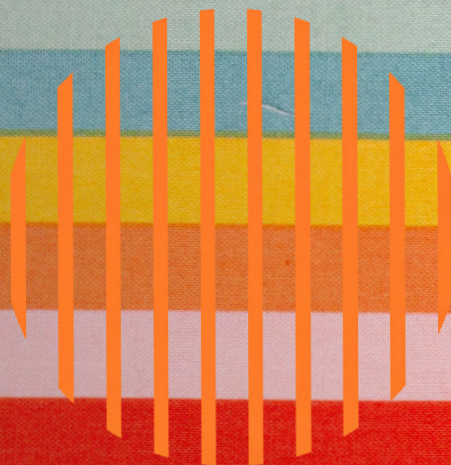

Make a brand impression that creates real positivity in the world. Wood products are associated with health and well-being. Studies in Canada, Japan, Austria and Norway contend wood's positive effects on the emotional state of people. And when you purchase a wood product from us, we'll plant a tree for you. That's not just creating an impression, that's leaving a legacy.

Mask Lanyard

Keep it close to them

Never let them be far from their masks with our new mask lanyard. It features two attachments that fasten to the ear straps of a face mask, allowing the user to quickly don their masks when exposed to social-distancing breaking conditions. Keep them close – keep them safe!

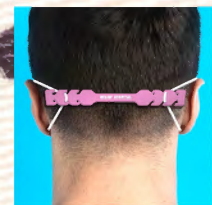

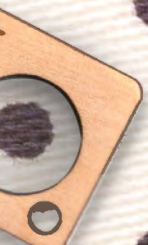

Untouchables

Make them Untouchable

Designed so your brand's fans never have to touch a shared surface again! The hook and pointer enables them to open doors, press buttons, and checkout while avoiding germs. Perfect for cold and flu season, or anytime the risk of surface contamination is high. Make your them fans for life by making them Untouchable!

Earsaver

Their ears will thank you

Constantly wearing a face mask can be hard on the ears. Enter the EarSaver - a soft, flexible silicone strap that allows adjustment for mask straps so that their mask fits firmly on the face while keeping pressure off the ears. Perfect for healthcare workers or anyone wearing masks for extended periods of time.

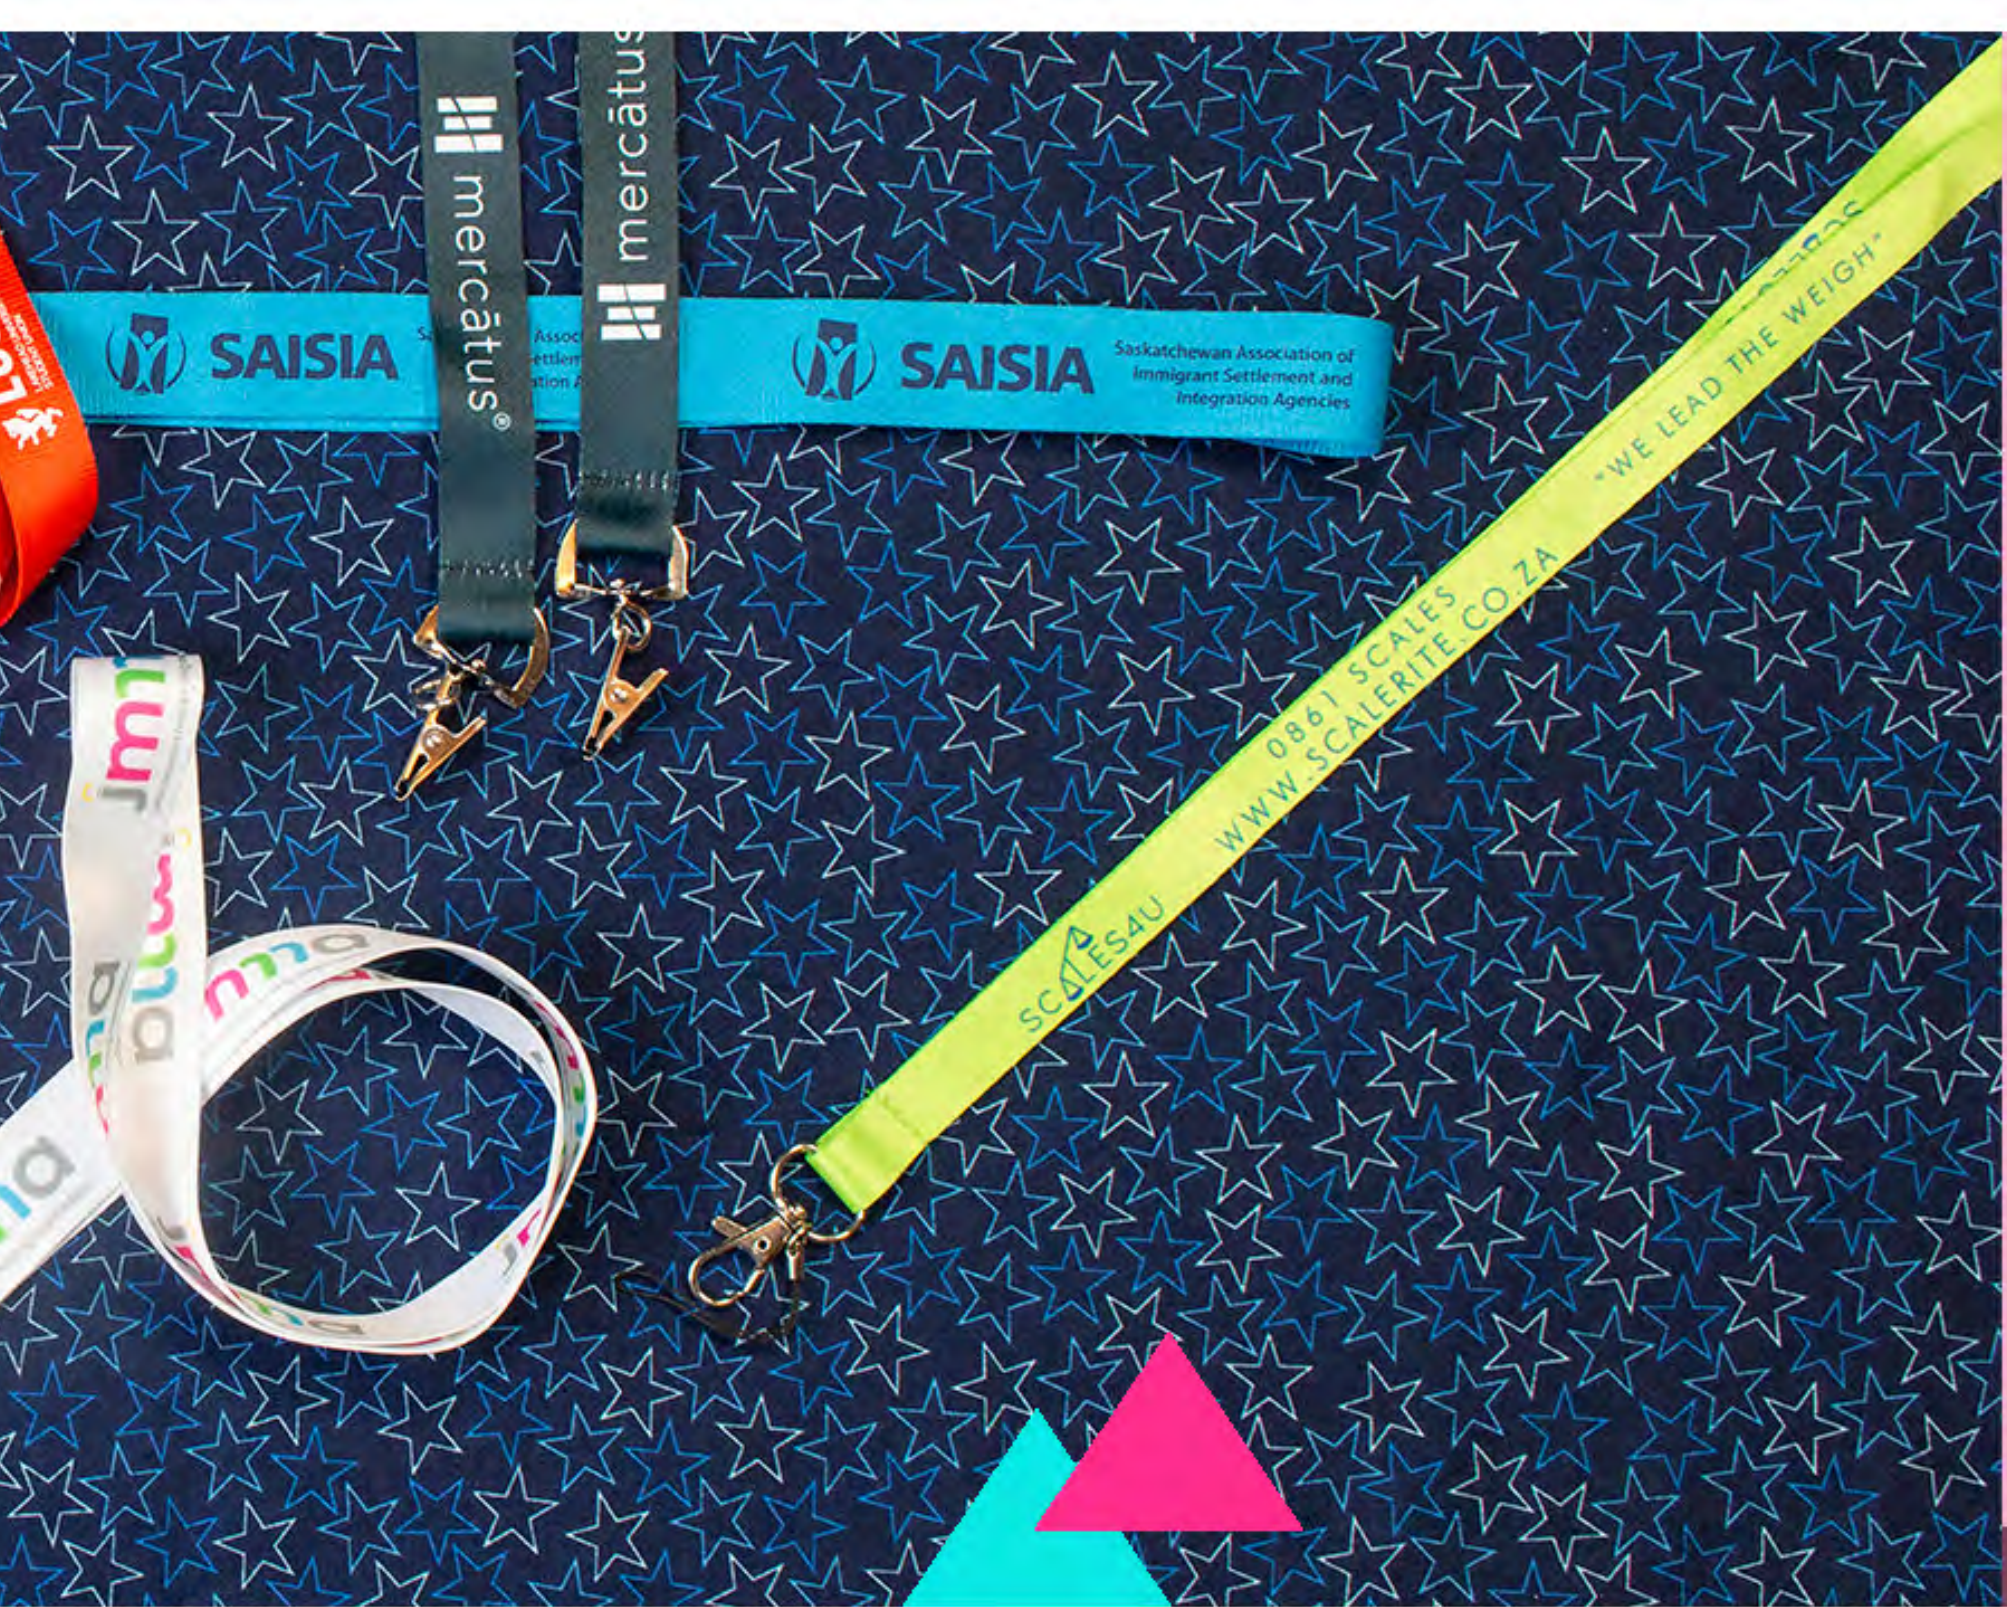

Lanyards

Who are you?

Whether in the workplace obscured by a mask, or at a gathering making new acquaintances, a lanyard offers the perfect instant recognition solution. Put their names out there in front of them and put the awkwardness behind them! No matter the environment, a lanyard is a trusted and true medium – one which smart brands always take advantage of.

Branding with flare

Customization options are endless on our patches. Take wearable promo to the next level by offering your customers trendy patches they can iron on their clothes, wear on a uniform, or display at their desk. Bring us your idea and we'll do all the work to craft the perfect custom patch to fit your project.

Ornaments

Create an annuity

Create your very own ornament this year and make an impression that hangs with them all season... and next season... and the one after that... and again after that...

Coins

Money in their pocket

Recognize major events and achievements on a budget with our coins. With a variety of sizes and finishes, we have an option that will allow you to celebrate in a unique and memorable way, while not breaking the bank.

We've has partnered with the non-profit organization One Tree Planted to plant a tree every time a wood or cork order is received. To date through this partnership we have planted more than 2,000 trees! Customers will feel good about giving back to the environment by ordering from our sustainable wood, slate, and cork product lines.

OneTreePlanted.org works with reforestation efforts in North America, Latin America, Africa and Asia.
