

CPPPA

Chesapeake Promotional Products Association

Top Reasons to belong to CPPPA

Key contacts in your own backyard

By making new contacts in your own community, you tap into a great pool for sharing ideas and industry knowledge while building relationships with industry peers

Benefits that save you time & money

CPPPA offers a robust list of value-added services and benefits like our coupon book, social outings, member newsletters and discounts with SAGE, Constant Contact & DASH

Low cost ~ High ROI

The cost to join is so affordable, $125 per year, per company; however, the rate of return for meeting one new customer, or generating one new idea is highly valuable.

Credibility and professionalism

Alignment with CPPPA positions you as a professional in your area as you advance your expertise through CAS/MAS approved education and recognition through our member only PEAKE Awards

Tradeshows & Networking Events

CPPPA's tradeshows & events provide a marketplace in your own community for area distributors and suppliers to meet face-to-face and generate business.

Professional Development

Membership with CPPPA opens the doors for professional development through education and exposure to industry leaders and trendsetters

CPPA does your homework for you

CPPPA serves as a filter for researching and delivering resources and tools from the industry that are applicable to its members

An opportunity to get involved

Participation in the development of CPPPA programs and services through board service and volunteering on committees

Help shape the industry

Membership with CPPPA gives you a chance to get involved in the issues that will affect your business and let your voice be heard
