ROCKETBOOK + PANDA PLANNER

LETTER

Our customers have been asking for a reusable planner for eons, so we finally listened. Rocketbook partnered with Panda Planner to build a planner that helps you plan your productivity and plan your happiness, all in one. Basically, it works like this: get big goals out of your head, onto some paper, and then accomplish those goals over and over. There is a lifetime of planning ahead, so why not do it in a planner that can be reused for a lifetime?

ARTWORK INFORMATION

BEST: VECTOR BASED GRAPHIC FILES

EPS, AI, PDF, SVG

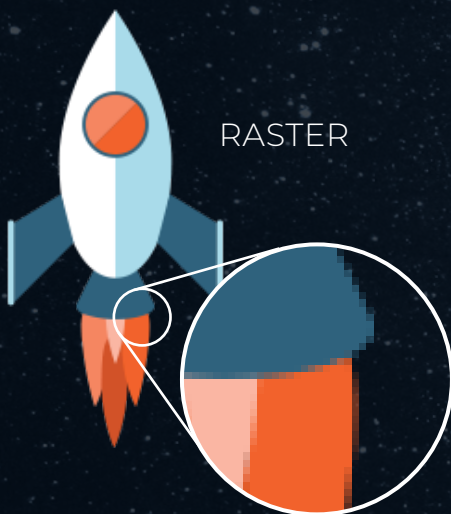

Vector based graphics are ideal for print production since they can be scaled without loss of quality. Vector graphics are comprised of paths, which are defined by a start and end point, along with other points, curves, and angles along the way. These paths can be used to create simple drawings or complex diagrams.

You will notice the difference between the Vector vs Raster images to the left. The bottom image is a "Raster" image. You can see that, when zoomed in, the image becomes pixelated and blurry. This is NOT ideal for printing. The image on the top, however, remains very smooth and non-jagged. This is because the image on the top was created in vector format, which IS ideal for printing.

GOOD: HIGH RESOLUTION, LARGE RASTER IMAGES

JPG, PNG, TIFF, PSD

These file types are made up of pixels, classifying them as "Raster" images. Raster graphics are comprised of a grid of pixels. More pixels means better detail, which makes these the best of the raster image options for converting to the print friendly vector format. The higher the resolution and larger the image size is, the more readable the file. This ensures that small details are defined and won't be left out when converting to vector. The difference file size makes can be seen in the raster/vector image comparison to the left.

OKAY: LOW RESOLUTION, SMALL RASTER IMAGES

JPG, PNG, TIFF, PSD, GIF

Smaller files in JPG, PNG, GIF, TIFF and PSD formats are fine, but all elements must be visible (i.e. all text can be read, shapes can be seen, etc.). Smaller files or low resolution images (blurry images) run the risk of details getting lost or quality being lowered. If the file requires a significant amount of restoration, there may be a fee for conversion.

NO ARTWORK

If you do not have existing artwork, simply type your request into the "Artwork Instructions" field when placing your order. Be sure to include any and all names, addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, websites, tag-lines, and any other text you would like to see. We also have an extensive stock image gallery to suit your needs. Just let us know what you are looking for and our talented team will do the rest. Example: "I would like an image of fruits and vegetables, with the text: 'Brown Family Farm' and our website: brownfamfarm.org."

ADDITIONAL ORDERING INFO

ARTWORK SERVICES

We provide virtual proofs free of charge. We also offer free art services such as raster to vector conversion, layout design, and custom artwork creation at our discretion.

COLOR MATCHES

We work to match all PMS and CMYK values in the artwork instructions provided by our customers. Rocketbook reserves the right to select best print method for each order. This is dependent on production schedule, artwork complexity, and production queue. Rocketbook does not guarantee exact color matches.

SAMPLES

We send random or retail samples free of charge upon request; however, we do require a UPS or FedEx account as well as the billing address associated with it. Samples ship within 24-48 hours of request. Please email all sample requests to samples@getrocketbookpromo.com.

BLANK PRODUCTS

We can only offer customized products. We do not offer blank Rocketbook products. If you would like to order in bulk without a customization, you can get more info on bulk retail products here by emailing sales@getrocketbook.com.

We do not offer product spec samples at this time. We can however, provide a random customized or retail sample (see sample section for details) as well as a photo realistic proof of the requested customization.

RETURNS

Custom printed products are non-returnable. All shipments leave the facility in new condition after inspection. We must be notified within 30 days of any errors or defects in manufacturing or printing and must receive samples for inspection prior to return authorization. Only authorized returns will be accepted. Refunds are at the discretion of Rocketbook on a case by case basis.

PRICES

Catalog pricing is subject to change without notice. Please see www.getrocketbookpromo.com for all current pricing. Pricing is considered agreed and accepted if we are not notified of a discrepancy after the acknowledgment and before invoicing. If a quote was received prior to placing the order, it MUST be submitted with the purchase order or made aware through your order profile.

RUSHES

We provide rush services upon request. Rush services will be based on availability and production schedule. Additional fees may apply.

SHIPPING

SHIP DATE

All order profiles will indicate an estimated ship date. This estimated ship date may change depending on the current production schedule. If your order has a FIRM in-hands date, please clearly indicate that on your PO or communicate through your order profile.

SHIPPING METHODS

Please specify your in-hands date and requested shipping method on purchase order. Our goal is to ship the least expensive method while still meeting your in-hands date. We ship all orders UPS and you will be billed for shipping costs up front unless specified otherwise. Shipping quotes are subject to change and are not final until the order is processed. If a firm in-hands date is required, please confirm which shipping speed is necessary.

THIRD PARTY SHIPPING

We can ship third party on a valid UPS or FedEx shipper number. On all third party shipments, complete billing information is required including valid account number, company name, and phone number. If you provide a 3rd party account number or designate a specific carrier, you assume responsibility from the time the order is ready for pick-up and are responsible for any lost or damaged goods or delays.

CANADIAN SHIPMENTS

If shipping through Rocketbook, we are partnered to offer international shipping through UPS. Since we are set up as a Non-Resident Importer in Canada, the shipping charges already include all customs duties and taxes. We require this to keep shipping clean and seamless without issues or risk of anything being held up at customs.

INTERNATIONAL SHIPMENTS

Shipping rates frequently change and will vary by country. We only provide shipping services. The customer is responsible for all customs duties and taxes. Rocketbook assumes no responsibility for any extra charges due to foreign taxes or customs duties.

SPLIT SHIPMENTS

We can provide split shipments upon request for an additional $10 per domestic location and $20 per international location. Spreadsheet with quantities and addresses is required.

PRODUCT SAFETY

California Prop. 65 is a law that requires warning labels if a product exposes customers to a list of over 800 chemicals. All our products comply with Federal regulations and CPSIA. It is the distributor's responsibility to notify Rocketbook if a client requires a Prop. 65 label. Please contact info@getrocketbookpromo.com for additional information.

TRADEMARK NOTICE

TESTIMONIALS

Very pleased! We were looking for a classy yet modern gift for attendees at our education conference next month. We wanted the gift to be “green” and the rocketbook was the perfect idea. The ordering process was so easy and the books arrived really quickly. They look amazing and I can’t wait to hand them out! —Stephanie

Great service! Had a tight deadline that I had to meet and they worked with me to make it happen. Got them right in time. Notebooks look and work as advertised. Would work with them again. —Christopher

Customized for staff gifts. We recently went through a rebranding process with our agency. To celebrate the changes, we decided to give all the staff a customized Rocketbook Core. They were surprised and delighted. Not only are they beautiful, incredibly smart and durable - they make us the coolest people in any meeting! They arrived in plenty of time and without any fuss. We are very happy. —Dana

Great customer service, great product! We ordered these as holiday gifts and love them. The colors turned out so well and the logo too. We were told they would take much longer than they did so I was very happy. The support team helped a lot with the logo and making sure that they looked great! —Jessica

A hit with the team! We got company branded Core editions for a team meeting and they were a HUGE hit! The ordering process was super easy, production and delivery was quick, and the books themselves are awesome. —Mat
